

VINCENZO CAIAZZO
COO, Alenia North America
Chairman, Global Aeronautica

Vincenzo ( Enzo ) joined Aeritalia in 1978, assigned to the Marketing and Sales Department. He held a number of positions of increasing responsibility at Aeritalia while residing abroad for extended periods.

In 1983, he was sent to Toulouse, France to act as Deputy Vice President of Contracts for GIE ATR, a consortium formed by Aeritalia and Aerospatiale for the production of Regional Aircraft. In 1988, he was named Vice President Marketing and Sales for ATR in Rome. In 1991, he relocated to Naples where he was appointed Vice President Marketing and Sales for the Transport Aircraft Division.

After the merger of Aeritalia and Selenia in 1993, Enzo moved back to Rome to serve as the Vice President Corporate Sales in Europe. In 1994, he relocated to Australia where he became the Head of Alenia Australasia. In 1997, he moved to the United States where he served as Alenia's West Coast Resident Executive. In this role, he was responsible for all activities related to Alenia's relationship with Boeing. In 2002, he accepted a position as the COO of Alenia Inc. (now Alenia North America), Alenia Aeronautica's new North American subsidiary. Since 2005, he has served as the Chairman of the Board of Global Aeronautica, a joint venture between Alenia North America and Vought Aircraft based in Charleston, SC, that performs fuselage assembly for the new Boeing 787 Dreamliner.

Vincenzo (Enzo) Caiazzo was born in Pomigliano, Italy in 1952. He earned a degree in Political Science from the University of Naples.
