

Ronald Colunga
Director, Aftermarket and Maintenance,
Repair and Overhaul (MRO)

In April of 2011, Ronald Colunga joined Alenia North America as Director, Aftermarket and Maintenance, Repair Overhaul (MRO). He brings 40 years of aerospace maintenance, logistics and transportation experience to the position.

Just prior to joining Alenia North America, he owned The Ronald Colunga Company, LLC, an MRO Consulting service that he founded in February 2010. Prior to making this investment, Mr. Colunga served as Vice President for Maintenance Repair and Overhaul for M7 Aerospace, LP, out of San Antonio, TX.

In this capacity, he served as the link for all of M7 Aerospace's Integrated Services for MRO, including an FAA Certified 145 Repair Station, Engineering, Supply Chain Management, U.S. Government Relations, Aero Structure Manufacturing, and Human Resource Services.

Immediately prior to joining M7, Mr. Colunga was Vice President for Business Development Support for SAFRAN USA, Inc. where he worked with individual SAFRAN companies' on their military strategies for weapon system sustainment entering MRO markets. He served as the point of contact for development of partnering agreements with US Air Force Depots for MRO for propulsion, equipment and defense products.

Mr. Colunga served over 33 years in varied USAF Logistics leadership positions including Logistics Plans, Aircraft Maintenance/Munitions, Base Supply and Transportation and worked with many different aircraft including the F-100, F-101, T-33, F-4, A-10, F-16 and C-130.

Colonel (retired) Ronald R. Colunga last assignment was as the Air National Guard (ANG) Advisor to the Ogden Air Logistics Center Commander. He wore the Aircraft Maintenance/Munitions Master Badge and the Senior Supply/Fuels Senior Badge.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Social Sciences from Troy State University in Montgomery, AL and a Master's of Science degree in National Resource Strategy from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces at National Defense University.