

Stefano Pineschi
General Counsel

In February 2011, Stefano Pineschi joined Alenia North America as General Counsel. In this role, Mr. Pineschi is in charge of managing the day to day operations of the legal department at Alenia North America.

Mr. Pineschi comes to Alenia North America from Alenia Aeronautica S.p.A., where he served as the in-house counsel since 2004. In this position he was in charge of drafting and negotiating international contracts for industrialization of civil aircraft, providing legal support for the company's participation in competition for public contracts relating to the sale of military aircraft, and protection of the company's intellectual property rights, in addition to verification of the company's compliance with all applicable laws.

In July 2005, he was appointed as Legal Focal Point for Alenia Aeronautica's works with Boeing on the 787 program.

From 1999 until 2004, Mr. Pineschi was in legal practice at a private law firm, where he handled litigation in civil, commercial and administrative law.

Mr. Pineschi is qualified in Italy as attorney at law and was a member of the Rome Bar from 2002 to 2004. He served in the Raggruppamento Unita Difesa, a branch of the Italian Intelligence Agency from 1997 -1998.
